

Annual Community Awards

Thomas Mesereau Humanitarian Award

The recipient of this award is a person who possesses a strong compassion for others. This individual shows a sincere devotion for giving generously of their time, talent, and financial support of others. This person has a genuine interest for improving the welfare and overall state of being of those underprivileged and disenfranchised. He/she is an activist for promoting personal dignity and human rights. This person is an advocate for those mistreated and generally “looks for the good in people”. The individual is well respected in the community for their integrity and a commitment to “do the right thing.”